Dear Mrs. Minkin,

We have waited long enough for interview with Mayor Campbell, per our written request of April 25, 2000. See attached copy of our request.

The disposition we requested for the Mayor, to deal with the unlawful corruption in the Bureau of Planning and replace our property which the City unlawfully bulldozed are justifiable demands, supported by State and Federal Constitution as well as all laws and ordinances.

If we are further ignored, circumvented, routed around the City Hall merry-go round, we will take the matter to the media and the public this coming week.
